LETTER DATED 19 AUGUST 1949 FROM THE REPRESENTATIVE OF HYDERABAD
ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

I feel it to be my responsibility, since the case of Hyderabad remains on the agenda of the Security Council, and in accordance with my position as explained in my last communication to you (S/1118, December 14, 1948), to lay before the Security Council further information as to this case.

The charge of aggression by India against Hyderabad was presented to the Security Council on September 16, 1948, and has never been discussed by the Council, much less disproved. Subsequent to this, Sir Zafarullah Khan showed to the Council that Cabinet Ministers and hundreds of other Hyderabadis were imprisoned by India and were to be tried, though for what crime it is not clear, since they were merely defending their country against illegal attack.
